Making Schools Better Places for Learning

Please help us to find out about any physical or mental health condition, impairment or difficulty that might affect your child's learning. We have a legal duty to take steps to improve outcomes for disabled people. The Department for Children, Schools and Families has developed a number of questions to help schools to obtain relevant information from all parents. The information will be used by us to promote the well-being of disabled children and to address any difficulties they face in all aspects of school life.

We will treat what you have told us here sensitively and in line with Data Protection laws. Our Privacy Notice is available on our website. None of the information will be shared with other parents or pupils.
